Performance Summary

I have had the privilege of performing in eight theatrical productions, taking on a wide range of lead and supporting roles that have helped shape my versatility as an actress. These experiences have allowed me to develop a strong foundation in character development, stage presence, comedic timing, and emotional expression. From playing bold, dynamic leads like Elle Woods in Legally Blonde Jr. to ensemble characters with unique flair, each role has deepened my love for performing and strengthened my ability to work within a cast. In addition to my theater work, I served as the lead vocalist in the School of Rock performance program for four years. This opportunity gave me the chance to perform in over 20 live shows, hone my vocal range, and grow comfortable commanding a stage in both solo and group settings. My time with School of Rock also taught me the importance of collaboration, adaptability, and consistent rehearsal discipline—all skills I bring into every production I join.
