Asia Holiday is an exceptional talent known for her multifaceted artistry as a vocalist, actress, and performer. At just 7 years old, Asia had her first major film experience in the biographical drama Get on Up, solidifying her passion for acting and music. Her illustrious career includes starring roles in musical theatre productions such as Annie, performing at Carnegie Hall with Distinguished Concerts International New York, and gracing the stage at the Grand Ole Opry for two consecutive years.

Asia's vocal capabilities range from Alto to Soprano, with an impressive belting style, making her a national title holder at the NAACP's ACT-SO National Competition. Beyond her musical talents, Asia excels in acting, with leading roles in theatre and film, and commercial work for brands such as the Mississippi Department of Health and Envision Eye Care Optical. Her dedication to her craft and vibrant presence has made her a standout performer, driven by her dream of becoming the youngest EGOT winner in history.
