PERSONAL SUMMARY

I am an experienced and dedicated motor yacht chief stewardess with over five years of service in the luxury yachting industry and more than 20 years as a primary school teacher. My background has equipped me with exceptional communication, organisation, and adaptability, along with a calm and positive approach to any situation. I bring professionalism, warmth, and a love of the outdoors to every role, and I'm eager to return to life at sea to combine my hospitality experience with my passion for service and teamwork.
