

Quayci “Star” Johnson

Preferred name: Star

678-704-9683

Instagram: @st4rpwr

check my website out here **

---

Professional Summary

Versatile artist with extensive experience in modeling, aerial hoop, singing, and dance. Featured in the music video “When We Die” by Yungblud featuring Lil Yachty, demonstrating a strong presence in both visual and performing arts. Skilled in delivering dynamic performances across various platforms, with a proven ability to captivate and engage audiences.

---

Experience

Video Model

Yungblud ft. Lil Yachty - "When We Die \(Can We Still Get High?\)" Music Video
2023

- Acted in a high-profile music video, contributing to the visual and thematic elements of the project.
- Collaborated with top artists and creatives, gaining experience in high-energy, collaborative environments.

Model

- Worked with various brands and photographers for commercial and editorial shoots.
- Demonstrated versatility in posing, styling, and adapting to different creative directions.

Aerial Hoop Performer

- A professional aerialist for two years. Performed in live shows and events, showcasing strength, grace, and technical skill in aerial hoop routines.
- Designed and choreographed original performances, tailoring routines to different themes and audiences. (I come with my own hoop!)

Singer/Songwriter

- Performed at live events, open mics, and recording sessions, demonstrating a diverse vocal range and performance skills.
- Developed and performed original music as well as covers, engaging audiences with strong vocal delivery and stage presence.
- My music is out streaming!

Dancer

- Trained in various dance styles including contemporary, hip-hop, and improv from a young age.
- Performed in live performances, workshops, and collaborative projects, adapting to diverse choreography and performance environments.

- References

Available upon request.