Kato Rose is a professional vocalist and Pop Soul Artist, dedicated to her craft for over 15 years. She has a bold voice that mesmerizes audiences with its vibrant quality, and her performance style emulates trailblazers such as Ella Fitzgerald and Etta James. Kato's songwriting style includes an array of musical genres from country to musical theater. She will be sure to give you a performance and songs that will make you feel like kindred spirits.

Starting her musical odyssey at age 4 with the piano, Kato Rose's, (aka. Rose Clemons) passion for music continues to bloom. She attributes her discipline to Miss Wendy's Amazing Grace Conservatory and Notre Dame Academy Girls High School in Los Angeles, California. She trained as a classical vocalist at the Rome School of Music Conservatory at Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. before transferring to Los Angeles College of Music to pursue her degree in Songwriting.

A native Californian from the South Bay; Kato Rose has performed for the Manhattan Beach Hometown Fair and the South Bay Women's Conference. She appeared the PBS show "Legacy List" (season 3 episode 5) and the OWN Network show, "Fix MyChoir," singing with the Hermosa Beach Coast Music Conservatory Gospel Choir. Kato Rose also performed for the NBA G-League teams the South Bay Lakers and the Westchester Knicks.. She's influenced by songwriters and lyricists like Ryan Tedder, Alicia Keys, Howard Ashman, Sara Bareilles, and Ester Dean.
