ABOUT ME

My name is Lindsay—I am a creative, gregarious, glow-obsessed Taurus based in Midwest Suburbia (Wichita, KS). I am an accountant by day and moonlight as a beauty + skincare content creator. I am an avid writer and love sharing my experiences through visual storytelling.

My account features primarily beauty and skincare products, and my content is centered around authentic, in-depth reviews. I focus on stylizing my reviews with a blend of research, brand identity, and my personal experience. In addition to my written reviews, I take high quality, creative photographs, and I enjoy filming original video content for Instagram reels + TikTok!
