biography

Bred as Lady Boursiquot, EYEAMKI was raised in the suburban town of Sleepy Hollow, NY. Making music since the age of seven, EYEAMKI has always known she would take the route as a pop singer.

As the years passed through her adolescence, she started to absorb inspiration from her favorite artists, including Michael Jackson, Prince, Liza Minnelli, Beyoncé and Depeche Mode.

This sculpted her sound & artistry into performance art via the genre of Pop music: Alternative theatre with a dash of relatable inspiration.

EYEAMKI is a message based artist here to inspire the world with impactful sonic artistry for all ages to interpret, learn and love. Listeners will be guided through her "play" of life with theatrics and her love for couture and entertainment.
