

Parth Vashi

Hey, I'm Parth Vashi, and I'm 17 years old. I'm from Surat, Gujarat, a city known for its vibrant culture and heritage. I've always had a deep passion for acting, and I consider myself quite good at it. Ever since I was a child, I've been drawn to the world of performance, whether it was through school plays, local theater, or just putting on shows for my friends and family.

Acting allows me to express myself and explore different characters and stories, which I find incredibly fulfilling. My dream is to become a successful actor, to be able to showcase my talent on bigger platforms, and to inspire others through my work. I'm dedicated to honing my skills and learning as much as I can about the craft. With hard work and perseverance, I believe I can achieve my dreams in the acting industry.
