

Jacob Hanna

440.227.7607 | hannamaniacs@yahoo.com

Objective

Passionate and dedicated hopeful child actor eager to take on new opportunities in film, television, and theater. Brings experience from multiple school plays and acting classes, along with a natural enthusiasm for performance.

Experience

School Plays

Lead role St. Brendan, OH

- The Comic Book Artist – Narrator
At the start of every scene, says a long monologue with dramatic flair every time and eventually gets in a fight with the main character
 - The Mad Tea Party – Time
One of the main roles, a character with strong emotion who tries to help the other characters.
-

Acting Class

Great Lakes Theater

Cleveland, OH

- Training in improv, voice work
 - Learning key skills including character building, emotion-driven performance, and stagecraft.
 - Participated in several group and individual scene work sessions.
-

Skills

- Strong memorization abilities and quick adaptation to new material
 - Excellent communication and emotional expression
 - Stage presence, confidence, and discipline
 - Comfortable with improvisation and cold reading
 - Ability to work collaboratively within an ensemble cast
-

Additional Information

- Available for auditions and flexible with schedule.
 - Reliable, punctual, and eager to learn and grow in the acting industry.
-