

General Biography for Leondrea Le'Le Thomas

Leondrea “Le’Le” Thomas was raised in the Bay Area, spending her elementary years in both Richmond, CA and Hayward, CA. Le’Le was an excellent student and immediately took a liking to music, dancing, and singing at a very early age. Leondrea loved to play dress up in her mother and grandmother’s jewelry and clothes. She would imagine that she was on stage performing for millions of people.

By the age of seven, she caught the stage experience when she danced on stage with Bay Area singer, Goapele at a Concert. Leondrea was absolutely a natural performer. From that day forward, it was clear that Le’Le was destined to be a star. Leondrea’s mother was proactive and immediately cultivated her daughter’s dream by entering her in talent shows throughout the Bay Area and becoming her Momager. Le’Le brought home several 1st place trophies.

Today, Leondrea’s “old soul” is ever-present, as it radiates in her performances, be it in singing, rapping, dancing, modeling, sports, or Hip Hop Dancing. Le’Le’s skill with music composition is growing rapidly, Defacto Music Group, enables her to continue with writing lyrics that are age-appropriate and some what profanity-free, and now profanity driven, all the while learning what it takes to edit and mix her own music.

Leondrea’s music career path is one of natural evolution, as she comes from a long lineage of Entertainers. Artistic expression is truly in her blood!
