| Breakdown Additional Notes | Storyline: After losing the old family ranch to a wildfire, a cowboy, Dusty, winds up in a small FEMA camp in the vast American West. The last of a long line of ranchers, he's stranded between the legacy of his land and the changes to it. But he begins to reconnect with his young daughter, Callie Rose, and his ex wife, Ruby, and ultimately the neighborhood around him that he never chose--a world of people who all lost their houses like he did. Together they find an unlikely community--and maybe even hope, beauty, and a future in this wild place. |
| Role Name | GERTIE AND ESMERELDA |
| Role Description | 70s to 90s, they lost their house in the fire and are living in the FEMA camp. Soulful and good-natured. Reliant on their nature for help with the FEMA bureaucracy. They love to sing together, particularly bluegrass and gospel. Probably have been in a church choir. One or both could be a person with disability. |
| Casting Director | Ann Goulder |
| Audition Instructions | Thank you for taping! Note that these characters are very down to earth, so please dress casually and either no makeup or minimal makeup/hair styling is best. In separate videos, please do the following. 1) Slate your name and where you are based. Then, please sing just a minute or so of a song, within the genres of either bluegrass, gospel or folk. 2) Audition scenes are attached. Please note, no need to do a "western" accent at this point, please use your regular accent. Please submit your audition within a week of request. |
| Audition Deadline | Thursday June 15, 2023 @ 12:00 AM (EDT) |

Submission Notes

I live in GA and have no problem traveling. I bought my frontier annual pass and fly for a penny plus tax with as little as 1 day notice. I am available! I have more reels available but they are old like me. I work at a German restaurant do all the Prost songs and German birthday songs. They let me off for travel and acting jobs. Fingers crossed!
