Model and Actor

As an actor, I've had the opportunity to work as an extra in both local and international films. I've also modeled for local projects. My passion for the audiovisual world, particularly lighting, has grown significantly through these experiences. I've fallen in love with this artistic field and believe I have great potential for growth within it

Modeling is like putting on a show
and you're
the star.
