More about me

At age 22, I have lived in 5 different countries before settling in Colorado Springs. My dream is to start a career in media in this place that I love, and continue collaborating on creative projects. I am determined to chase down opportunities and grow my skill-set.

I have a knack for talking to people who I have nothing in common with and a fascination with telling non-fiction stories, and therefore one of my major goals is to combine my passions of media production and activism to make a difference in my community.

CineStudio Paris

I graduated from a one year film-making course at CineStudio Paris in 2024.

I wrote, directed, and edited 3 fiction short films, 1 stop-motion animated short film, and 1 French documentary of my own.
