ABOUT ME

Aspiring model with a background in social media content creation, modeling and fashion influencing. Throughout my experience collaborating with multiple brands online, I have used my background in visual arts and digital creation to attract a wide audience to meet brand marketing needs. My experience includes styling, posing, editing and promoting diverse fashion products through both video creation and photography.

I bring a strong understanding of visual storytelling and natural confidence in front of a camera. I am eager to expand my career in print, runway, and commercial modeling opportunities that allow for me to grow, connect with industry professionals, and bring a fresh perspective to the modeling world.
