

Diamond Perkins

DiamondPerkinsMedia@gmail.com

Results-driven and ambitious graduate in Media Communications seeking the opportunity to advance within the camera operation and/or entertainment arena as an actor. Experienced in audio and video content, in addition to video editing, technical directing, and serving as a production assistant.

Skills Summary

Production Assistant

I was P.A for BLOCKCON for the New Kids on the Block, I oversaw the crowd check-in process. Assisted with Facebook.com and YouTube.com live-stream activities. Set up Sony PWX-Z150 video cameras. Set up and break down production equipment. Track and count video equipment inventory

ACTOR

Successfully completed Fine Arts and Theater in 2018 at Kennedy King College.

RESEARCH AND MEDIA

Efficient and dedicated as it relates to working with various research-related media projects. Successfully completed all aspects of production such as set up camera equipment and interviewed individuals on topics like the Ukraine vs. Russia conflict. Video editing skills were utilized for each media project.

BOOM OPERATOR

As a boom operator I am tasked with holding boom pole and mic for long periods of time

WRITING

Skilled writer and communicator. Familiar with various writing styles blogs, press releases, bulletins, creation of tv show/commercial/movie scripts, and skilled at developing questionnaires for interviewees.

CREATIVITY

Ability to create and develop logos, 3D designs, and drawings. Continuing to develop storylines for scripts and other production-related projects.

TIME MANAGEMENT

Great project and people management skills. Familiar with the importance and skill of prioritizing and accomplishing ideas and milestones in a timely and efficient manner.

EDUCATION

2018 –2022 At Kennedy- King College
Chicago, Illinois

References Available Upon Request