MODEL - ACTOR - MUSCIAN

BIO

A versatile 28-year-old musician/artist based in Nashville, offering a dynamic skill set encompassing musician, actor, and voice actor capabilities. My experience extends to contributing music to local television and commercial productions, providing a strong understanding of on-set environments and industry standards. Complementing my performance background is experience hosting events and podcats within Nashville's vibrant entertainment scene. I am eager to leverage my diverse talents and professional approach in modeling and acting opportunities that involve travel, entertainment, whether that be reality, animation or commercial television.
