The CHI Showtime Television Show

Church Member

Working as a dedicated background actress, I brought authenticity and warmth to my role as a Church Member in The Chi. Whether cheering for the choir, interacting with the lively congregation, or quietly reflecting in the pews, I helped create an atmosphere that embodies the church community's spirit.

Let's Make a Deal

Show Contestant

As a high-energy, fun-loving contestant on Let's Make a Deal, I fully embraced the thrill and unpredictability of the game. Sporting a quirky, pink flamingo costume that showcased my playful personality, I dove headfirst into the excitement of every moment. My boundless enthusiasm and genuine love for the experience shone through, making each moment unforgettable and adding a vibrant spark to the show's dynamic atmosphere.

Alumni Stories for Saint Catherine University

Alumna

I received the exciting opportunity to represent my alma mater and share my journey since graduation. Selected to showcase the spirit and success of fellow alumni, I was part of a production that highlights the impact of my education and the connections I've built over the years. Whether on camera or through narration, this commercial is a celebration of where I've been and where I'm headed—bringing my story to life for future generations to see.
