♦ ABOUT

I have a passion for at risk youth in diverse populations with socio ethical problems needing social services and conflict resolution. I want to help underachieving Minorities in high-risk populations Achieve life changing results pertaining to socio economic prosperity in future generations. I want to break generational issues that collectively hurt students of minority ethnicity. Secondary education is where students learn to deal with constructive criticism and take positive reinforcement, mainly concerning being respectful hard-working adults in our society. Helping these students is my passion.
