

Samantha Boubel

Height: 5'5 Hair: Blonde Eyes: Blue/Green Shoe: 9

I've been in the film industry for a little over three years, and during that time, I've had the opportunity to create several of my own short films and build meaningful connections. I truly fell in love with filmmaking after collaborating with a team on my very first project—it was then that I knew this was where I belonged.

I've gained valuable experience on set, especially while working as a Production Assistant, where I learned the ins and outs of being an Assistant Director. I enjoy directing, acting, and working behind the scenes. Acting allows me to step into different characters' lives and bring stories to life, while directing gives me the chance to shape those stories and lead a team in making them real.

I thrive in organized environments and pride myself on being detail-oriented—skills that are essential in this industry. I'm proficient with Excel spreadsheets, scheduling, and managing logistics. I also love bringing people together, whether it's assembling a crew or setting up meetings.

Most of all, I'm passionate about making impactful, influential films that inspire others. I'm incredibly grateful for the opportunities I've had so far and excited for everything that lies ahead.
