Experience

I have taken several acting classes over the few years with an actor who now teachers online I have auditioned for a online play that was in New York City and was cast as one of the main characters the day of the play another actor was not able to attend so I was offered this role as well I have been in some school plays as well and even helped with the play props which I helped build and create.

Awards

I receive RISE cards from my school administators on occasion for being a model student and for following our school rules.

RISE shout out for always having a positive attitude and contributing in class participation.

During baseball, soccer and football seasons, I received countless awards for winning end of the season championships.

End of the school year awards for class clown and good story making and telling, won by my peers and teachers.
