SUMMARY

Originally from Latvia and currently based in sunny Miami, Florida, I bring over 10 years of modeling experience from diverse locations including Italy, France, Turkey, China, Malta, Mexico, and Latvia, enriching my passion for acting. As a former beauty contest queen, I have embraced the spotlight and transitioned into performance and storytelling.

My acting journey in the U.S. began at Miami Acting Studio and Universal Acting, where I am committed to continuous learning and growth in my craft. I have worked on musical clips, acting games for exhibitions, and commercials for resorts, restaurants, and yachts, along with background roles British films. These experiences have deepened my love for storytelling and character exploration.

Currently I'm training in stunts and fighting for film, developing combat skills for on-screen action performances.

I pride myself on being easy to work with—fun, punctual, responsible, and adventurous. I thrive on challenges and am always eager to learn. A hard worker and fast learner, I can fulfill directors' guidelines with ease. Grounded and confident, I feel right at home in front of the camera.

Open to travel for work, I am excited about new opportunities that come my way. Let's create something amazing together!
