

LIS LUCIDDI Narrative CV

Award-winning actress Lis Luciddi holds a law degree and has been performing on stage since 1997. Her work in television and film began in 2004. Among her most notable theater credits are Os Enamorados, directed by Antônio Fábio; Drácula, directed by Márcio Meirelles; and Apartamento 1201, directed by Cristina Moura and Ana Paula Bouzas.

On television, she has appeared in the series Selva Corporativa (TVA), Ó Paí, ó (Rede Globo), Poder Paralelo, and The Love School (Record). She also stars in the series Insustentáveis, filmed in Mato Grosso, portraying the hilarious Luíza Aparecyda — a role for which she was selected from among 200 actresses across Brazil — available on Amazon Prime. Her television work also includes Hunt (Amazon Prime) and Ameaça Invisível (Record, set to premiere in 2025).

Currently, Lis has received five Best Actress awards, including one in Los Angeles (LATCA-2019) for her performance in Baby Trap (dir. Carlos Faria).

Her film credits include Qualquer Gato Vira-Lata 2 (Roberto Santucci), Loop (Bruno Bini) — both co-produced by Globo Filmes — as well as O Homem Cordial (Iberê Carvalho), O Anel de Eva (Duflair Barradas), Jewel Thieves (Brian Nesbit, Colorado – USA), Homens Mortos Não Contam Histórias (Lula Magalhães), and A Escuta (Ariel Cascadura).

She currently plays the role of Telma in the new telenovela A Infância de Romeu e Julieta, produced by SBT and Prime Video.

In addition to acting, Lis trains in Stage Combat, sings, and plays the piano.
