PROFILE

I am a passionate and disciplined aspiring actress with a unique background that fuels my work in the creative arts. I proudly served 5.5 years in the United States Army, an experience that not only shaped my resilience and leadership skills but also taught me the value of adaptability—an essential trait in acting. My transition from military service to the world of performance is driven by a deep love for storytelling and human connection.

Though new to the industry, I bring intense focus, raw determination, and an unwavering work ethic to every role. I'm committed to learning, growing, and pushing creative boundaries as I build my career in film and television.
