

JACOB WOOLLEY

TELEVISION AND FILM ACTOR

I started my acting journey in January of 2023, and I am thrilled that I took that step! It has been a whirlwind of incredible opportunities, and I sincerely appreciate those who believed in me! I am a "Dungeons and Dragons" aficionado who is slightly obsessed with rumors about the upcoming Game of Thrones book. I love to make people laugh, and I know far too much random information, especially about all things Tolkien. I should have realized that I was going to be an actor at two or three years old when I constantly walked around like a drunken sailor after watching "Pirates of the Caribbean" so when I first stepped foot on a film set about a year ago, I knew I had finally found "my people."
