PERSONAL INTERESTS

An explorer of stories both on and off screen, I spend my days reading autobiographies, writing screenplays, singing, and creating short films with fellow artists.

In my spare time, I enjoy motorcycle riding, horseback riding, skydiving, and playing the French horn. I am passionate about studying, traveling, discovering world cuisines, and connecting with new people wherever life leads.

I believe that acting is the art of wearing emotions like costumes, stepping into imaginary worlds, and revealing the humanity that connects us all.

Each performance is a unique exploration of truth and imagination.
