

AVA SHERRY

I was born in March of 2014 and made my professional acting/singing debut in Nashville Opera's La Boheme at TPAC in the fall of 2022. I love acting and singing and also love to do impressions. I have appeared in many short films, commercials and done a lot of voice over work.

My dad is self-employed so transportation and chaperoning are easily provided. He also owns and runs a professional recording studio in Nashville where I love to record.
