Profile

Claudia Borri, born on 11/09/1996 in Turin (IT), is a dancer, choreographer, singer, and poet based in Milan.

She began studying ballet at the age of 5, later expanding into modern and heels, eventually earning a Regional Professional Dancer Diploma (contemporary dance) at Dancehaus Milan.

Initially performing for choreographers such as Susanna Beltrami, Matteo Bittante, and Stefano Fardelli, she then began her teaching career and coaching for academic auditions (Teatro Carcano, La Scala in Milan), while also developing her personal choreographic work, bringing productions like "Space of Hearts" and the musical "Dolcemente Complicate" to the stage.

In Milan, she collaborates with fashion and entertainment agencies, works as a teacher, and continues her choreographic research through competitions and showcases, earning scholarships for her students.

She is the author of the poetry collection "Quando nessuno vede" (When No One Sees), published in March 2021 and presented at the Turin Book Fair in 2022. The collection later inspired a namesake performance, premiering at Museo Fondazione Matalon (Milan) in October 2023.

Her latest choreographic and dance works include: Biennale of Mykonos 2023 with "Regeneration" video project, Music videos like "John Gotti" by Lacrim feat. Baby Gang, "Il mio giusto momento" by Lorenzo Licitra, Fiorucci Campaign "Dancing Candy", "Sliding Doors" for Mixing Identities - Canvas Art Fair 2024 at the 60th Venice Biennale, Madame X Zalando Commercial (Sanremo 2025).
