About me

Leyla Chykulina is an international versatile actress based in Zurich, Switzerland, originally from Russia, Kenya, and India giving her a uniquely ambiguous look. She speaks native English and is fluent in Russian and German. Currently she's starring in a lead role in an indie feature where she plays a bubbly, charming girl. Recently she also directed and acted as a rebellious teen in her short film The Magic Trick, which is heading to festivals soon. She's excited to explore global opportunities in film, television, and theater.
