

Nora El Machati Corrit El Yemlahi

Phone no: 07585079978 Email: nora.emcey@gmail.com SW5

Personal statement:

I am a sixth form student studying A-Level Art, French, Drama and Sociology. I am a self-motivated and diligent individual, and I always find a way to accomplish my goals. In addition, I work well with others and can take on criticisms to improve my work or actions.

Experience:

School Musical - Actress (October 2023 - present)

- Memorise choreography and lines
- Develop singing skills
- Embody the character

LAMDA - Actress (October 2023 - present)

- Learn lines
- Work in teams
- Present our plays in unique ways - using different practitioners and their styles
- Learn about the dramatical terms

Imperial College London Engineering Summer School - (July 2022)

- Discussion in groups
- Complete tasks
- Designed inventions for people with disabilities, for example an automatic sharpener for people with arthritis.

Prefect at CA

- Time management
- Weary of surroundings
- Available to help

Police Cadets - Participant (2017 - 2020)

- Synchronise movements
- Volunteered in community services
- Carried out necessary procedures

Codelab - Participant (2018 - 2019)

- Coded our games
- Coded in python
- Created simple programs for example, a randomly generated dice

Key skills:

- Confidence
- Creativity
- Good interactions

- Adaptability
- Ambition
- Enthusiastic
- Team Work

Education:

Chelsea Academy (September 2023 - present)

A-Levels: Art, French, Drama and Sociology.

Chelsea Academy (September 2018 - 2023)

GCSEs: English (7) and Maths (5).

Achievement/ Awards:

Silver Duke Of Edinburgh Award - 2022

Bronze Duke Of Edinburgh Award - 2021

Jack Petchey - 2019

Volunteer Police Cadets Volunteering Achievement - 2017

Languages:

Spanish - Native

English - Fluent

French - Intermediate proficiency

Hobbies & interests:

In my free time, I enjoy drawing and designing outfits and scenery as well as practising taekwondo.

References available on request.