About me

I am a voice actor and performer with a deep, calming voice and a passion for storytelling! This is why I also love being a presenter.

My work spans short films, audio guides, and narration. I began acting after university, where I studied International Relations and History.

I discovered a love for performance through varsity theatre. Since starting my training in January, I have won MZA’s “Scene of the Month” three times.

Recent credits include Sojourner’s Journey (2025). London-based, British citizen, and fully available to travel.
