Education

- Appalachian State University 2022
 - Bachelor of Science, Electronic Media Broadcasting

Experience

- Universal Studios - Mega Movie Parade 2024 - present
 - Debuted Universal's Mega Movie Parade in 2024 portraying a look-alike role and maintained strict brand integrity of intellectual property through facial expressions, gestures, and consistent performance
 - Enthusiastically learned tech skill parade float operation in 2024 and once again when recast in 2025 to operate an in-show vehicle while maintaining performance quality
 - Embodied character mannerisms to deliver believable, immersive performances in both parade float and roaming settings
- Universal Studios - Mardi Gras: International Flavors of Carnaval 2025
 - Maintained high-energy dance and interactive performance quality during parades in varied weather conditions such as heat and rain
 - Created memorable experiences for children and families through one-on-one photo ops, handed out Mardi Gras mementos such as beads and coins while simultaneously creating fun activities during meet-and-greets
 - Adhered to costuming, safety, and performance protocols during outdoor meet-and-greet sessions in heat contingencies as well as cold contingencies
- Universal Studios - Halloween Horror Nights 2023
 - Performed in dim lighting, fog effects, and confined spaces while maintaining high energy and character consistency
 - Maintained strict adherence to safety protocols and prioritized guest safety while operating in low-visibility conditions
 - Portrayed multiple original and intellectual property horror characters in high-volume haunted attractions
