

GEORGIA CAMERON

Actor and filmmaker

Phone

0499303132

Email

Georgia.cameron132@gmail.com

Address

Melbourne, Australia

Education

- Bachelor and Creative Arts (Theatre and Film)
Deakin University 2025-current
- Certificate 4 in hospitality
Serve It Up April 2024
-Sept 2024
- Bega High School 2018-2023

Graduated with HSC certificate and awarded the senior High School Dedication to The Performing Arts Award.

Special Skills

- Dancer: Over 10 years experience in contemporary, jazz, hip hop and lyrical, Broadway and physical theatre styles.
- Music/vocals: Over 10 years experience playing the piano. Other instruments include the saxophone, drums, guitar and vocals
- Organisation skills

References

- Christopher Maher, Training Co-ordinator of Canberra Theatre
Phone: (02) 6243-5718

About Me

I am a dedicated and enthusiastic learner with extensive experience in collaborative team environments. Known for my reliability, organisation and passionate attitude, my demeanour is often characterised by kindness, understanding and keen observation, allowing me to effectively contribute to team dynamics. I am eager to bring these qualities to a workplace where I can continue to learn and challenge myself while making meaningful contributions.

Experience

Community Theatre

- Currently in a BustCo production of Pride and Prejudice as Caroline Bingley
- Selected for the 2022 Canberra Theatre Work Experience program where I engaged in learning about every sector of the theatre company, working alongside theatre directors, designers, marketers and many other production roles
- Lead role in a production of The Little Mermaid with Spectrum Theatre Company
- Certificate of participation in the Regrowth Youth Theatre Community Project associated with Bontom Productions
- I have conducted acting and performance training with Dr Louise-Morris, artistic director of Navigate Arts, and admired lecturer of Deakin University

Film and TV work

- Assistant director in a Ozz films and Melbourne Documentary Production
- Extra on the TV series Granite
- Extra on ABC Goolagong TV series
- Leading role in the short film "In Memories I Wonder"
- Actor, director and writer of a short film "Nameless Destinations" in Voices of The Valley Film Festival with Rabbit Productions
- Cinematographer on a short "In Waves of Doubt"