Career Objective

As the Captain of the Charlotte Film Festival Committee and a former US Navy Logistics Specialist, I possess a unique skill set that blends logistical precision with creative execution. This combination equips me to contribute and learn from an internship in corporate and television production. My proven ability to thrive under pressure brings outstanding organizational efficiency and effective leadership to the entertainment setting. My hands-on experience at the Charlotte Film Festival, coupled with my theatrical skills, directly aligns with the diverse demands of the entertainment industry, making me a well-prepared candidate for facing the multifaceted challenges in corporate and production environments.
