

Emma Whalen

St. John's, Newfoundland

Phone: (709) 219-4417 | Email: eewhalen@icloud.com

Profile

Versatile and dedicated performer with experience in acting and modeling. Trained in theatre and acting since a young age, with strong on-camera presence, emotional range, and adaptability in both performance and modeling settings. Professional, reliable, and passionate about storytelling and collaboration.

Experience

- Acting classes & theatre training from a young age, developing strong stage presence and performance skills.
- Invited to play a role in the Netflix film Peter Pan & Wendy (unable to film due to timing, can provide receipt).
- Attended CMTC (Canadian Model & Talent Convention), gaining exposure to workshops in performance, industry professionalism, and networking.
- Consistently successful in auditions – never turned down after a self-tape, always advancing to interviews or in-person auditions.

Education & Training

Holy Heart of Mary High School, St. John's, NL – Student

Acting Classes & Theatre Training – Various programs since early childhood

Canadian Model & Talent Convention (CMTC) – Workshops in modeling, acting, and industry preparation

Skills

- Strong emotional range and character adaptability
- On-camera and stage confidence
- Professionalism and reliability on set
- Communication skills (written and verbal)
- Time management and adaptability
- Social media awareness and industry etiquette
- Ability to take direction and collaborate effectively

References

Available upon request. (Direct contacts will be provided when needed.)

