ABOUT ME

I am an aspiring musical theatre student with a lifelong passion for the arts, theatre, and performance. Having been involved in productions since the age of two, I have gained a wealth of experience across both amateur and professional settings, developing my confidence, creativity, and stage presence. I am currently studying for a BA (Hons) degree in Musical Theatre at LMA Liverpool, where I am building a strong foundation in the craft and deepening my understanding of the theatre industry to prepare for a future career in musical theatre. Alongside my training, I have taken on a variety of non-performing roles that have strengthened my adaptability, teamwork, and communication skills. As a Christmas temp at Sainsbury's, I learned the importance of efficiency, customer service, and working under pressure in a fast-paced environment. In my current role as a children's party host, I engage with young audiences through games, entertainment, and character work, which often involves performing as a mascot—an experience that allows me to combine performance skills with energy, humour, and interaction. These experiences, both on stage and off, have shaped me into a hardworking, versatile individual with a strong commitment to the performing arts.
